DEDICATION

In recognition of his unselfish and untiring devotion to the school and community, the Senior Class respectfully dedicates this, the nineteen hundred fifty-three edition of Memories, to

MR. OTTAVIO J. DE VIVO

MARTIN G. SANBORN

Principal

Graduation is not a relief from responsibility, but an increase.

May you stand up under your new burdens.

CHARLES E. BLEILER

Submaster

You have accomplished an important step in your progress through life. Our task in assisting you to develop skills and traits that will be beneficial to you throughout life has been made easier because you have been a wonderful class. Congratulations, good health, and success to you!

FOREWORD

When time has rolled onward and pushed the memories of our present into the realm of uncertainty, it is our fond hope that this chronicle of the Class of '53 will in some measure remove that uncertainty.

May this book bring delight and satisfaction to you, the members of this class. May your pleasure be fulfilled and may the nostalgia of your visual visits with your classmates more than compensate for you all your school day worries.

To all may we say, Goodbye, Good Luck, God Bless You, the class of '53 of Everett High.

Secretary
LUCY DI PAULO

Treasurer
BARBARA MOORES

Nineteen Hundred Fifty Three

NICHOLAS ADILETTO JR.
59 Cedar Street

Orchestra 2; Band 3, 4; Credit Roll 2.

To be a power burner engineer,
Is Nickie's greatest ambition.
We wish him lots of success
In obtaining this position.

JOAN AHLIN
260 Main Street

Homeroom Vice-President 4; Majorette 2, 3, 4, Leader 4; Credit Roll 3.

Full of sport and full of fun.
Joan is liked by everyone.
She's pretty too, and can she twirl!
Little Joan, she's our girl.

BERNARD AHERN
89 Norwood Street

Home Room President 4.
Bernie is the "Valentino" of our school.
Listen girls, he's no fool
He's hard to catch, but when you do,
He'll make you happy and never blue.

KARLA AHLBERG
752 Broadway

Credit Roll 2, 3, 4.
Accounts receivable, payments due,
Assets and balances too,
These things will be figured by
Everett's grad,
Karla's the best that is to be had.

EVA ALIBERTI
154 Main Street

Eva we know is full of fun
And certainly liked by everyone.
A clerical typist she will be
A great success we all agree.

BEVERLEE K. AHLIN
9 Swan Street

Senior Class Vice-President, Dramatics 3; Majorette 2; Credit Roll 3, 4; Spanish Club 3, 4.
Bev deserves to be a teacher of gym.
She'll make good, for she has lots of vim.

BARBARA ALLEN
 24 Westover Street
 Credit Roll 2, 3.
 Graceful in form and feature,
 A very delightful creature,
 Smile enchanting, disposition
 sunny,
 We all agree she's quite the honey.

CHARLES ANDON
 203 Broadway
 Credit Roll 2, 3, 4.
 A Horse-Riding Academy,
 Is Charlie's main dream.
 With Pete Caradonna,
 They should make some team.

JEANETTE ANDON
 203 Broadway
 Honor Roll 3; Credit Roll 2, 4.
 To succeed is her aim,
 And we know she will do it;
 For whatever she does,
 She will always stick to it.

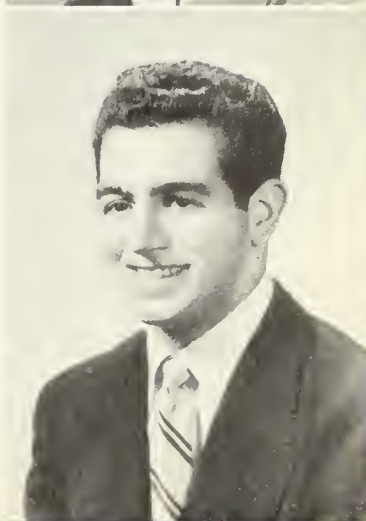

MICHAEL ANIKA JR.
 3 Forest Avenue
 Credit Roll 3, 4.
 Genial Mike, with the happy smile,
 Work or College, we'll know in a while.

CARMINE ANNETTI
 37 Belmont Street
 Football 3, 4.
 As a football player,
 He received recognition.
 We wish him great success
 With his ambition.

JOHN ACARI
 2 Betty Street
 Credit Roll 3; Football 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Track 3; Junior Prom Committee 3.
 Our Mr. Football of "53"
 Is what we call our "Hickory".
 He played that game with lots of zest,
 Our boy Johnny is the best.

MARY ARIGO
 7 Neilson Avenue
 Mary's quiet, Mary's nice
 She's worth her pay, at any price.

PHYLLIS HAZEL BABCOCK
 9 Victoria Street
 Credit Roll 2, 4.
 Phyllis is a girl known to all.
 She is pretty, sweet, and shy.
 In her job as office clerk,
 Success won't pass her by.

IRVING ARONS
 66 Chatham Road
 Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Lyceum 2;
 Honor Roll 3, 4; Credit Roll 2.
 The chances for his failure,
 Are absolutely nil;
 When Irving is an engineer
 He'll be known for his great skill.

FRANK ASTUTI
 75 Bradford Street
 Credit Roll 2, 3, 4.
 One who always takes
 Everything with a smile.
 What could be more Worthwhile?

CAROL BAGGS
 26 Richdale Avenue
 Credit Roll 3, 4.
 Carol may look quiet and
 She may look shy,
 But did you ever notice
 That twinkle in her eye?

PATRICIA AUGER
 32 Waters Avenue
 Pat is such a charming girl,
 As pretty as a picture.
 Just let one employer see her,
 She'll be a permanent fixture.

JANET BAKER

99 Linden Street

Class President 3, 4; Spanish Club 3, 4; Swimming Club 2; Honor Roll 2, 3, 4.

Take from her life all worry and care
And put in their place a soft arm chair.

GEORGE BANKER

74 Baker Road

There's never a dull moment with Georgie around,
That "Hot-Rod" of his makes quite a big sound.
George, another "Valentino" of our class,
Will make some girl a happy lass.

ELEANOR BANKS

47 Malden Street

Gilbert & Sullivan 2, 3, 4; Credit Roll 3, 4.

To teach little girls and boys
The way to read and write
Would be, to our Eleanor,
A source of great delight.

NORMA BARNES

57 Central Avenue

Student Council 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 3, 4; Band 2, 3; Gilbert & Sullivan 2, 3, 4, President 4; Swimming Club 3; Homeroom President 2; Honor Roll 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Year Book Staff 4.

As for Norma, one thing we ask,
Keep your grace to perform your daily task.

You did much for our school it's true,
We wish all the Happiness for you.

ELIZABETH BARRETT

88 Jefferson Avenue

Credit Roll 2, 4; Cheerleader 4.

Here's to a grand girl
Three rousing cheers
May you know happiness
All through the years.

EVA BASILESCO

35 Pierce Avenue

Credit Roll 2, 3, 4.

With Eva's charming personality
And entertaining wit,
We're sure wherever she may be,
She'll always make a hit.

BARBARA ANNE BATEMAN

1 Spring Street

Credit Roll 4.

Barbara wants to go to work,
But not for all her life.
Soon she'll settle down,
And be a good housewife.

MARY BERNARDI

291 Ferry Street

Glee Club 4.

Mary wants to travel
Over Europe, bye and bye
And visit tht lands she's read about,
In the halls of Everett High.

JAMES BEATTIE

7 Baker Road

Student Council 4; Gilbert &
Sullivan 2, 3, 4; Credit Roll 2, 3,
4; Homeroom President 3.

Such pleasantness is a rarity,
But to be handsome is rarer still;
Rarer than both is Jim's good will.

SHELDON BERLANT

47 Hamilton Street

Credit Roll 3, 4.

A mechanic is . . .
What Sheldon would like to be.
We are sure he'll reach his goal
With his ease and ability.

LOUIS BERTOLAMI

18 Chisholm Street

Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Band 2, 3, 4;
Gilbert & Sullivan 2, 3, 4.

"Louis" is witty,
"Louis" is a joy,
We just can't help
Loving that boy.

FRANK BERNARDI

111 Clarence Street

Class Room Officer 2.

What Frank will do,
He does not tell,
But what he does,
Will be done well.

HAZEL M. BLAKE
28 Arlington Street

Home Room Vice-President 2;
Home Room President 3; Glee
Club 2, 3; Honor Roll 2, 3, 4.

Hazel wants to take dictation,
Do filing and the rest.
We know whatever task is chosen,
She will do the best.

JUNE BLEET
23 Dean Street

Dramatics 3, 4; Honor Roll 4;
Credit Roll 2, 3.

June to her patients will bring good cheer,
Making their difficult days less
drear,
Her pleasing smile and pleasant way
Will always make them feel quite gay.

JOSEPH BONAZZI
113 Union Street

Credit Roll 2.

His ambition we ask,
But he wont tell;
Since he's good at each task,
He'll do quite well.

LILLIAN BONO
51 Englewood Avenue

Honor Roll 2, 3, 4.

This charming lass,
With the smile so gay,
A successful secretary,
Will be one day.

HERBERT BORNSTEIN
127 Irving Street

Engineering is Herbie's aim,
His talents the world will know.
In his work he'll find his fame,
And to the top he'll surely go.

BEVERLY A. BRACKETT
15 Beacon Street

Gilbert & Sullivan 3; Credit Roll
4.

As a secretary,
Bev will take her place,
For in this position
She'll be an ace.

JANE BRADBROOK

83 Third Street

Honor Roll 3, 4; Credit Roll 2.

As an accountant we will see
Jane rise to a high degree;
Each passing year, we all know,
Will cause her fame to grow and grow.

MARGARET BRENNER

54 Argyle Street

Margaret wants to be a success
And handle lots of money.
We know she'll be good at this
Because she is a honey.

196 Bradford Street

Tom will join the Air-Corp soon,
After his happy freedom in June.

MARILYN BRADLEY

26 Freeman Avenue

Dramatics 2, 3; Drama Night 3,
4; Talent Show 4; Credit Roll
3, 4.

As a dancer she'll find her fame,
She'll look to the lights and see her name,
You'd know if you've ever seen
her.
Who? Why the prima ballerina!

MILDRED V. BROGNA

6 Cazenove Place

Gilbert & Sullivan 2, 3, 4; Credit
Roll 3, 4; Italian Club 3, 4;
Home Room Secretary 3; Home
Room President 4.

Tilly wants to pound the typewriter keys
With her ability she can do it with ease.
We rate her as a true friend
Her helping ways will never end.

CLEMENT C. BROWN
32 Webster Street

A successful Draftsman,
Clem will surely be;
For he has all the brains,
As we can plainly see.

SHIRLEY ANN BROWN
11 Englewood Avenue

A girl with a smile
Who's always worth while
Always jolly, and friendly too,
A genial classmate through and through.

LOUIS FONTI
62 Tileston Street

Gilbert & Sullivan 2; Credit Roll 2, 3; Track 2; Junior Prom Committee.

Here's a future dentist,
Who'll surely make the grade
We're sure he'll make a good one
Of this we are not afraid.

RICHARD FONTI
62 Tileston Street

A laugh, a chat, a gay retort
Perhaps sometimes a pun;
Richie's a friend to all who know him
With a smile for everyone.

ALBERT FORGIIONE
16 Arlington Street

Al, you won't tell us
Just what it is you'll do,
But whatever the future holds
May it bring good luck to you.

ALBERT FOTHERGILL

CLASS HISTORY

As freshmen, in September of 1949, our class began its high school career at the Albert N. Parlin Junior High School. Under the capable leadership of Audrey Clark as president; Salvatore Napolitano as Vice President; Elena Rocco as Secretary and Barbara Moores as Treasurer, the class of 1953 proved to be a group of energetic and enthusiastic students.

The talents of our classmates were displayed in the Dramatic Club, Debating Club, band, orchestra, and the athletes were first in gaining recognition.

Recollections of our Freshman year include Parlin "Socials," outstanding assemblies contributed by the Dramatic Club, Debating Team, the Talent Assembly sponsored by the unforgettable Traffic Squad at which our colleagues displayed talents which heretofore had been hidden. On Parlin Day, thirteen members of our class were proud recipients of the Parlin "P" award. Thus ended a year which had been successful and full of happy moments.

When September rolled around again, we, as sophomores, made our long anticipated entrance into Everett High School hoping for the best and expecting the worst. As our leaders, we chose Carole Gosselin, as President; Doreen Gardner as Vice President; Elena Rocco as Secretary; Barbara Moores as Treasurer, while Norma Barnes, Audrey Clark and Anne Middleton represented the Sophomore Class on the School Council. While trying to outwit upperclassmen and trying to be optimistic about the pranks played on us as the underclassmen, we were enthusiastically taking part in the Gilbert & Sullivan Club, Glee Club, Lyceum, band, orchestra, Italian Club and Spanish Club. On the sports field our classmates were showing their athletic abilities. Highlights of our Sophomore Year included our Sophomore Hop, Yeoman of the Guard, Italian Night and Variety Time of 1951.

The following fall found our Junior Class busily engaged in electing Janet Baker as President; Jeanne Harding as Vice President; Lorraine Porriello as Secretary; and Barbara Moores as Treasurer. The Junior representatives on the School Council were Norma Barnes, Carole Gosselin, Florence Napolitano, and Katherine Terrio. The class of 1953 was rapidly becoming a vital part of Everett High School. Many of us participated in the productions of Drama Night, H. M. S. Pinafore, Italian Night and Varieties of 1952. Besides the talents displayed in these activities, the gridiron, court, diamond, and cinder path were feeling the impact of our energetic athletes.

Our Junior year came to a grand finale with the long awaited Junior Prom. Classmates worked untiringly side by side preparing for the big night. Our school gym was transformed into a Hawaiian paradise to the delight of all present.

When the Class of 1953 again assembled in Rockwood Auditorium, it was as the Senior Class. Our first duty was to elect the students who would wield the gavel of authority for our most memorable year. Female politicians again held the rule when Janet Baker was elected President; Beverlee Ahlin, Vice President; Lucy DiPaulo, Secretary; and Barbara Moores, Treasurer. Meanwhile, on the School Council Norma Barnes was Student Chairman and Florence Napolitano was Secretary-Treasurer while Katherine Terrio, James Beattie and Ronald Courtney were representatives.

SENIOR PROM

Soft lights, the gym decorated in the gay festive spirit of the Mardi Gras, the sweet music of George Lane and his music masters, young men in formal dress, beautiful girls in evening gowns, glamor and laughter. The Senior Prom of '53!

What senior can ever forget the night of March 20!

Two hundred couples joined in this, the gala event of the senior class. From the start to finish our committee arranged and carried out their plans to make this the greatest of all affairs. A good job well done. The Grand March, led by President Janet Baker and her escort, was highlighted only by the picking of Frank Haley and Lillian Bono as King and Queen.

The prom over and away, we went to other spots of entertainment, interesting and pleasant, but there's only one Senior Prom.

Our thanks to Mr. Daniele and Miss Cotter for their splendid work and untiring efforts in making this, a night never to be forgotten.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mr. John McLaughlin, has again completed a successful year.

The purpose of this group is to develop the personalities of members through a knowledge of stage technic, and to enrich their cultural backgrounds by an understanding of drama as a fine art. These ideals are accomplished by weekly practice on stage in the presentation of skits, verbal exercises, and pantomimes. In addition, the group is advised on various phases of stage presence and the drama by their able director.

Dramatic Club activities this year included a tea, which was given for the parents of members. In addition, the club successfully participated in the Massachusetts Drama Festival at Marblehead. The play presented was "Overtones." Members of the cast included June Bleet, Nancy Dersofi, Toby Newman, Sidney Poger, John Shields, Beverly Stahle, and Ella Westerman.

DRAMA NIGHT

THE PLAY'S THE THING

The motto of the E. H. S. Dramatic Class was activated in the preparation and presentation of this year's Drama Night.

The play, directed by Mr. John McLaughlin, was Louisa May Alcott's immortal classic "Little Women," a drama in three acts, as dramatized by Roger Wheeler.

Thanks to the untiring efforts of our director and cast, the warmth and simplicity of the beloved March family was re-lived, creating a fine and enjoyable performance.

Also contributing to the success of the play were costumes authentic to the era.

JUNIOR GLEE CLUB

THE ITALIAN CLUB

The Italian Club has progressed notably since its beginning fifteen years ago.

On December 4, 1952, the club sponsored a Parent's Night at the Everett Senior High School. Parents of students studying Italian sat with the students during a regularly scheduled lesson in Italian. Members of the club served a collation to their parents after the class.

On March 21 at Boston College, the club presented a play before the Eastern Massachusetts Association of Teachers of Italian.

The Annual Italian Night was held at the Rockwood Auditorium April 17 when the club presented a play, "Maritiamo la Suocera." After the performance, the club was host to the alumni at a reunion in the school cafeteria.

We are now proud to present our School Council. This organization helps maintain the promotion of school spirit and student participation.

This year a wonderful assembly program was scheduled by the School Council, financed by their annual "Talent Show" and dance.

Under the direction of the Council, a thorough clean-up campaign was conducted which added greatly to the appearance of our school.

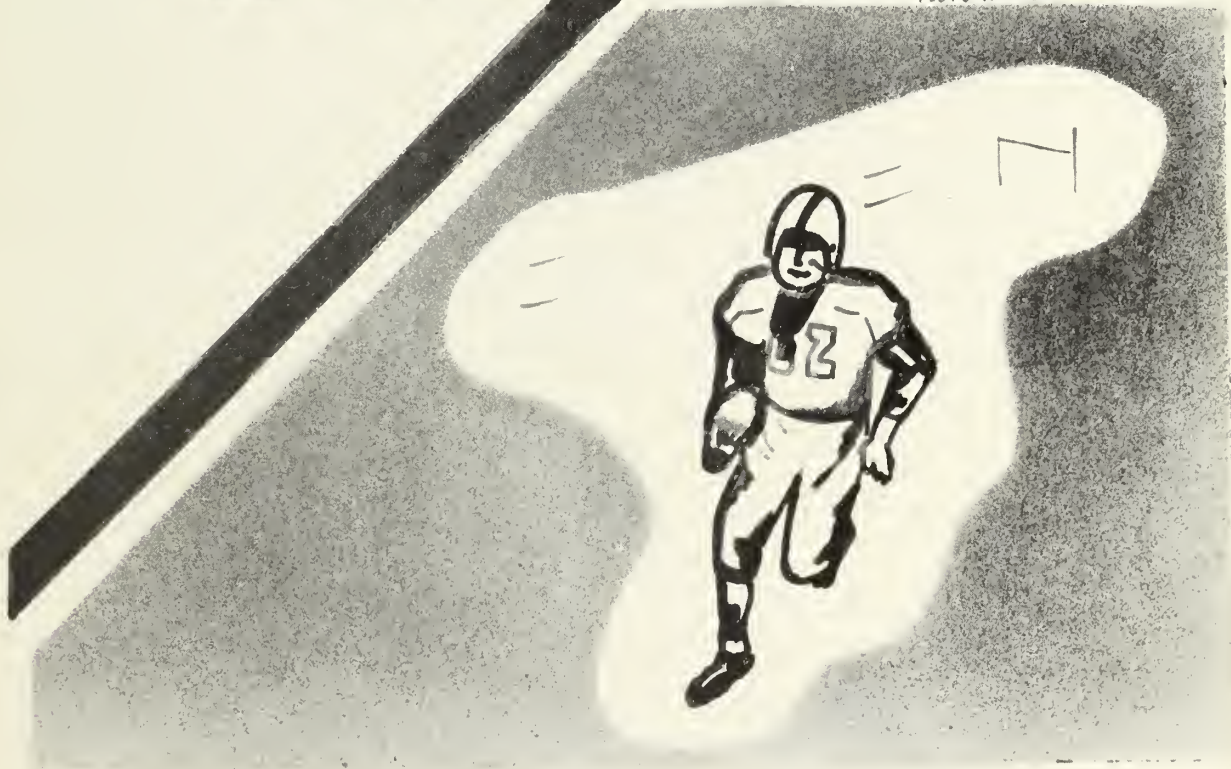

The members of the Council attended two conventions this year, namely: the fall convention at Winchester High School in November and the spring convention at Gloucester High School in April.

The projects of the Council could not have been so successfully carried on without the guidance of Miss Julia Gibbons and Mr. Lenox B. Putnam, faculty advisors, and Mr. Charles E. Bleiler, submaster.

FOOTBALL

The "Crimson Tide" has risen again! Not since the '45 season has an Everett High School football team gained so much fame and publicity. Beginning with the Weymouth game and ending with the All-Star Game, Everett's boys and the Everett football team were in the news. Led by Co-captains Al Molle and John Manganaro we racked up a 7 and 2 record against the best teams of class "A". The Everett "Tank Line," with a combined weight of over a ton was another high light of the season.

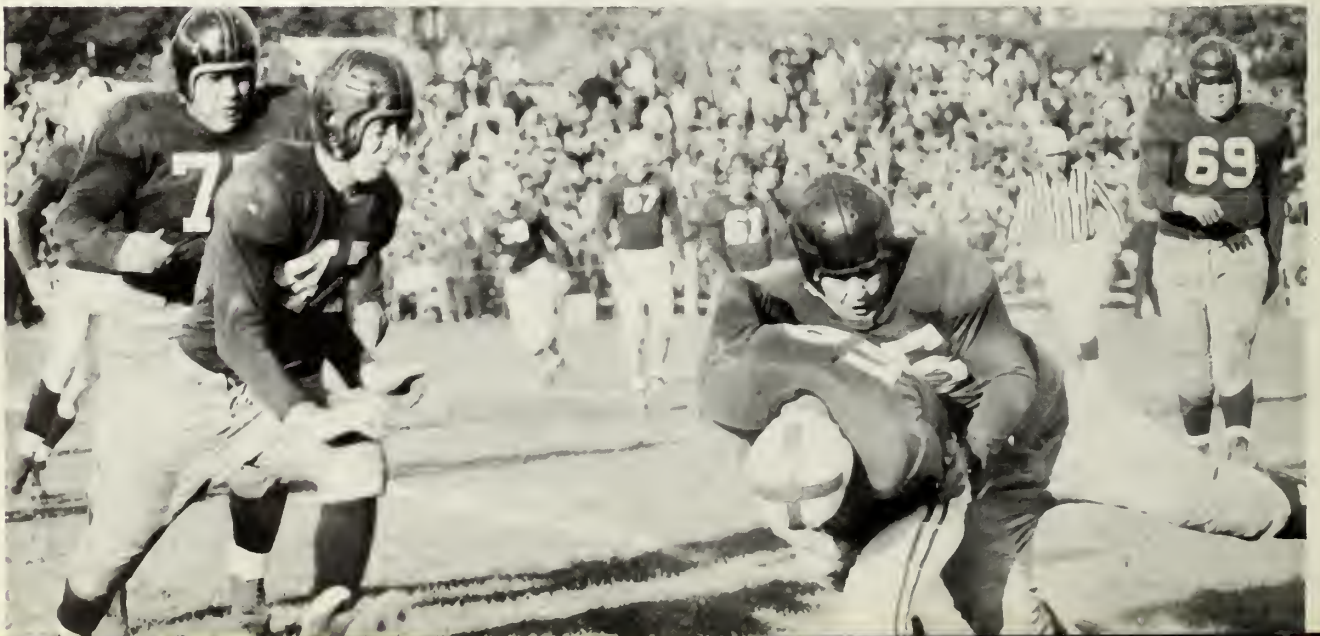

We had been looking forward to the opening game with Weymouth since the close of the '51 season. When we took the field nothing could stop us, not even the three year state champion, Weymouth.

With Everett's line and Carmen Annetti's ball stealing act leading the way, we played Weymouth to a scoreless tie in the first half. Everett had a big chance to score when Frontero passed to Arcari on the Weymouth 30. Arcari, turning to make the catch, looked up into the sun and lost the ball. "Oh for a pair of sunglasses!" The touchdown came at the end of a drive that started on the Everett 21 yard line; a nine play blitz that wound up early in the fourth period, with Jimmy Frontero running 31 yards to "pay dirt." On the way, some fine line bucking was displayed by Sal Napolitano and George Caiazzo. After that victory, the season was sure to be a success.

After breaking Weymouth's 31 game winning streak, we ran up against another one in Somerville. Somerville had beaten us for the last four years, but this was no obstacle for the "Crimson Tide" to overcome. The only thing that could stop Everett that Friday night was the rain, so the game had to be called off until the next night. The first Everett touchdown was made by Sal Napolitano, who dove over from two yards out. Our second score came on a trick reverse on a punt return. "Whitey" Davis took the punt, and running across field handed it off to Caiazzo, who ran 56 yards for the score. The game was won in the final minutes, with Somerville touchdown bound on the Everett 40. Co-captain Al Molle grabbed a wayward pass and raced 60 yards to score, only then to faint from the shock. The final score was 20 to 13, and the "Crimson Tide" rolled onward.

Our next game with Quincy proved once again that the Everett line was too much. Early in the second quarter the wear and tear began to show, and we began to go. With Al Molle, Carmine Annetti, and Mario Valarie making the holes, fullback Sal Napolitano and halfback George Caiazzo blasted their way to the Quincy 4, from there Sal dove into the end zone for the score. We added another in the fourth on a pass from Frontero to Sapienza good for 25 yards and the score. The defensive stars of the game were Joe Supino, Bob Marques, and Orlando Grande with some tackles that still can be felt. The final score was 13 to 0.

We hit high tide against Lynn Classical. George Caiazzo coming off the sick list to score all our points, as we swamped a determined Lynn team. Caiazzo's runs will never be forgotten in Manning Bowl, up to midway in the fourth period we hadn't even made a first down. Whitey Davis filling in for the injured Frontero showed he was a capable quarterback in calling the plays. He passed to Caiazzo for one of the scores. The final score was 25 to 6.

We found ourselves again in the spotlight as the game of the day. But this time victory was not ours. Medford dropped us from the unbeaten ranks 14 to 6. With John Arcari recovering a fumble and making a sensational catch we drove to the Medford THREE and with seconds remaining in the half Sapienza crashed over for the score. We threatened many times in the last half, but fumbles and penalties hurt. Medford's speed proved too much for our big linemen.

We gained our winning ways against hapless Revere. It was LETTER NIGHT as Coach Gildea mercifully cleared the bench in the second half. The Everett TANKLINE first saw action with Tino Valeri, Jim Moreschi, Mario Valeri, Joe Parziale, Bob Marques, Joe Herlihy and Ole Grande, making up the 1692 pound line. Caiazza scored three more touchdowns with Coviello, Manganaro and Colameta all scoring in the rout.

On we roared to a smashing 22 to 0 Victory over Brockton, with Juniors, Caiazza and Sapienza leading the way. Our first score came as Alex Molle trapped a Brockton back in the end zone to give us a 2 to 0 lead. Caiazza then grabbed a Brockton punt and ran 60 yards for the score. Americo Sapienza swept Brockton end for the second touchdown in the third period. A Whitey Davis to John Manganaro pass put the ball on the Brockton 10 and Sapienza carried the rest of the way for the final score.

Our next Foe was Arch Rival Malden and with a pending bowl bid and the old tradition staring us in the face. We got the second half jitters and lost 13 to 6. The first half ended up as Whitey Davis passed to Sapienza for a score and we went into the club house confident of victory. In the second half the little Malden backs ran all over our tank line. If they had only run into us instead of around us the game would have been ours. We threatened again in the final period going to the Malden 10, with Sapienza calling the plays 4 passes fell incomplete and we went down to our second defeat.

We finished up our season in fine style by defeating our Thanksgiving Day Rival — Chelsea — 20 to 13. We drove 49 yards to a hard earned score in the first period with Sal Napolitano and Bob Coviello leading the way. In the second period John Arcari grabbed a Whitey Davis Pass in the Chelsea secondary and galloped the remaining 35 yards for our second score. Our third touchdown came in the fourth quarter by capitalizing on a faulty Chelsea pass and Sapienza scored his second touchdown. Everett's mighty line made their last (never to be forgotten) goal line stand in the final minutes to preserve Victory and to end up a successful season in grand style.

To top off a successful season six Everett Line Men and six Everett Cheerleaders with their Coach, participated in the Suburban All Star Game. The game was won by our Co-Captain, John Manganaro, with a 65 yard kick off return.

The Football Rally and Parties contributed much to the team's morale. We'd like to thank all the Cheerleaders and Majorettes for the wonderful attention they gave our team.

This year's basketball team, the 25th coached by Lenox Putnam, was the youngest in the Greater Boston League. The season's record of five wins and nine losses in league play, seven and ten all together, is not exactly impressive but it gave the boys the needed experience to make them a better ball club the next time they take the floor.

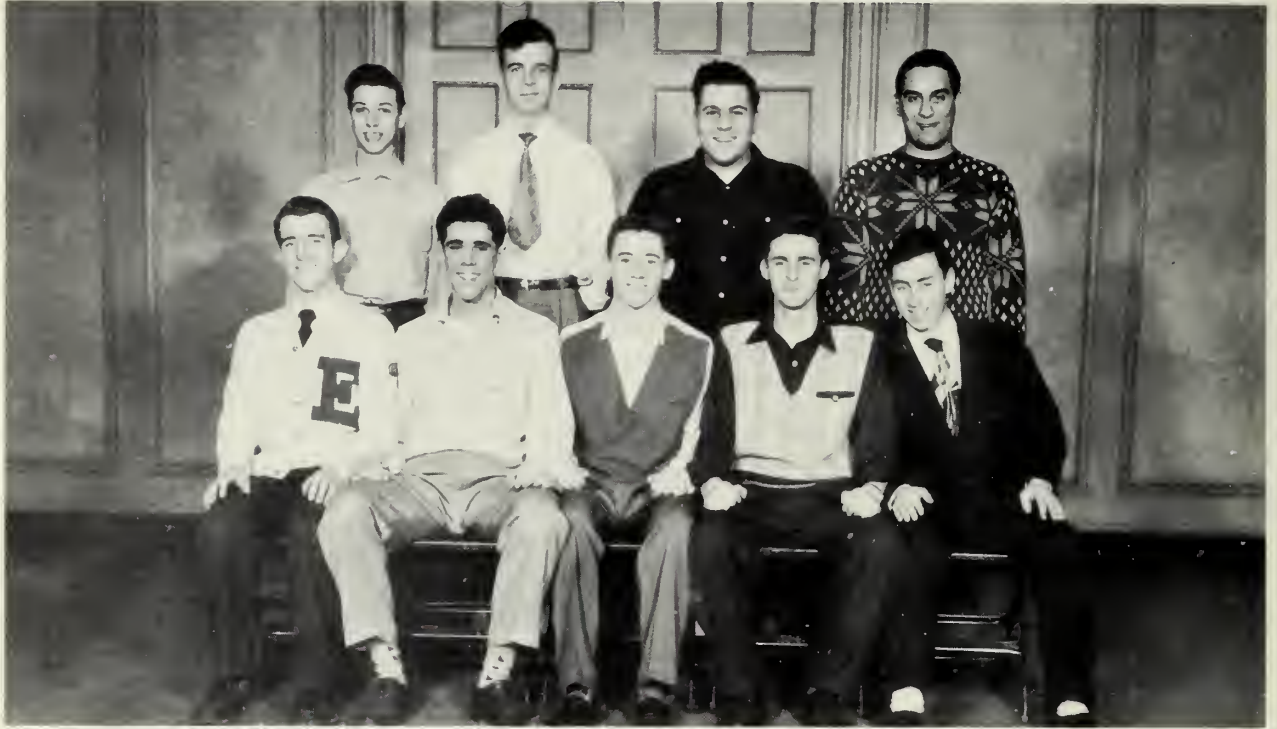

In our first game against Lynn Classical we were victorious by the score of 63-48. Then came Waltham and defeat 64-43. This was followed by a 51-38 victory over Newton, giving us two wins and a loss in pre-league games. Our league season started at Lowell and we got off on the right foot with a 51-47 victory. Then "disaster" struck. We were hit by four straight losses. First, to one of the best Revere teams in years followed by Somerville, Quincy, and Chelsea. We got back on the victory trail with a win over our neighbor Malden 49-45. However, the trail was short and we were defeated in our next game by the pre-season favorites, Medford. Even though losing, this was the best game that we played in the first half of the season. The second half of the season started off in the same fashion as the first, with a victory over Lowell. Then came revenge on Revere by a score of 50-42. Next was Somerville, at the end of the first half the score was 35-24 Somerville leading. All looked hopeless! In the second half the boys put on a great exhibition only to fall short in the final minute. The final score was Somerville 54 Everett 52. This game was followed by two more defeats by Quincy and Chelsea. We got back on the right side of the ledger with a 53-44 victory over arch-rival Malden. In the final game of the season we were defeated by Medford 54-51, but it was one of the finest exhibitions of high school basketball to be seen.

Among the seniors on the team are the co-captains William "Whitey" Davis and Salvatore Napolitano. Davis is probably the best defensive player that Coach Putnam has. "Whitey" also has a nifty one hand push shot that made him an equally dangerous offensive threat. Sal showed that he could hold his own on any court. The other seniors are Thomas Green and Robert Smith who are missing from the picture.

TRACK TEAM

First Row: J. Northrup, J. Manganaro, R. Coviello, (Captain), J. Pomer, B. Joseph.

Second Row: F. Astuti, R. Knight, M. Valeri, A. Pace.

Coach John Killian is looking forward to a banner year for the track team this spring, although he will have hard work to fill the shoes of such graduated stars as Captain Robert Johnstone, David Peerson, William Perkins, Larry Amorosa, and James Gibson.

He will have to rely heavily on star lettermen: Captain Bob Coviello, milers Jack Northrop and Richard Knight, short putters Al Molle, Orlando Grande, Mario Valeri, broad jumper Joe Astuti, and runners John Manganaro, Burton Joseph, and John Pomer. In addition to these outstanding veterans he will be aided by sophomore Lennie Tarasuk and high jumper Mel Ashton. The loss of miler Richard James will be felt greatly.
